

Nicolette Fariello Springer, M.S., Project Manager, Criminal Justice, Mental Health, and Substance Abuse Technical Assistance Center

Nicolette Springer is the Project Manager of the Criminal Justice, Mental Health, and Substance Abuse (CJMHTSA) Technical Assistance Center which is housed in the department of Mental Health Law and Policy at the Louis de la Parte Florida Mental Health Institute (FMHI) at the University of South Florida (USF). Prior to her current position, she was a Visiting Statistical Data Analyst for the Policy and Services Research Data Center (PSRDC) also in the Department of Mental Health Law and Policy. In addition, she has held Adjunct Faculty positions at both the University of Central Florida and USF. Ms. Springer has a bachelor's degree in Political Science from Florida Atlantic University, a master's degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Central Florida and is currently pursuing her doctorate in Criminology at USF. Her research interests include mental health and substance abuse particularly relating to female criminality as well as issues concerning gender, race and ethnicity in the criminal justice system.